

Civil/Cellular Tech II

Job Description

Pinnacle Consulting, Inc.. is a Telecommunications Services company that offers wireless network operators a variety of services to narrow the expense between the expectations of today's wireless services consumer and the ability of the network operator to meet or exceed those expectations. Core areas of Pinnacle's business include Civil/Cellular services, Microwave Engineer/ Network Services, Tower structure services and alternative power solutions. Optima Networks is currently looking for quality candidates to join our team as we continue to grow.

Job Requirements

2 + years experience.

Understanding of cell site construction.

Ability to mount antennas, run coax, apply connectors, sweep lines, and PIM Test Coax lines.

Required Skills

Basic knowledge of knots and tower rigging necessary.

Ability to operate aerial lifts, man lifts, skid steers and aerial platform equipment.

Ability to lead crews when foreman is gone

DC/AC electrical skills

Able to work with minimal supervision

Able to read and understand a customer detail plan

No issues with heights.