

Quality and Safety Manager

Job Description

This position will function within the Quality and Safety department and report to the Quality and Safety Director. The successful candidate will serve as the staff subject matter expert in safety and quality by developing and carrying out procedures and documenting processes with the market organization. This role is also responsible for the quality control audits of all installation and repair work ensuring safety compliance as outlined by company and OSHA directives.

Required Skills

Reviews potential subcontractors safety policies, procedures, and safety performance during pre-qualification/bidding phase to ensure the company meets the established requirements.

Conducts field-monitoring activities associated with hot work permitting, excavation permits, crane operation, equipment loading/unloading, etc.

Reviews/Audits daily safety activity conducted by subcontractor safety personnel. Conduct accident investigations and incident reports as needed.

Takes immediate corrective action for any unsafe acts observed, involving the company management and subcontractor management for immediate review.

All applicants are expected to have good independent, good organizational and communication skills

Required Experience

3- 5 years of documented telecommunications Construction Management experience

Strong knowledge of OSHA Federal Regulations, state and local safety regulations, policies and procedures

Must has current OSHA 500 certificate and training experience in OSHA 10/30 Commtrain certified in Tower operations/Rescue and training.

Current OSHA 30 Certification

Previous experience with AT&T related construction projects (NSB/UMTS/LTE) within the last two years

Superior oral, written and presentation skills

Demonstrated strong managerial skills coupled with experience dealing with multiple stakeholders

Demonstrated ability to review contractor health and safety plans

Demonstrated experience in conducting field audits and accident investigations

Must be fully proficient MS Office Suite, Visio and MS Project

Educational/Certification/Experience Requirements,

Associates Degree Strongly Preferred

OSHA 500 Certified and current

OSHA 30 Certified and current